Open: Tues.-Sun., 10:00am-7:00pm (Closed on national holidays.)

If you think all museums are quiet and dull, you're in for a big surprise. This museum features the best of rock and roll music from its early days until now. There are many different displays-from musical instruments, such as John Lennon's guitars, to clothes that stars have worn on stage, such as Elvis Presley's shirts. You can watch videos of concerts on giant screens, look at old photos, or listen to thousands of great songs. Every year, the 'Hall of Fame' honors a different great star and adds new exhibits about their life and work. There's a museum diner where you can sit back, relax, and listen to your favorite rock and roll tunes on the jukebox. For rock and roll lovers, young and old, this museum is well worth a visit!
