Are you superstitious? Before you answer no, think about the little things you do now and then. For instance, do you always use a certain pen for tests? There are superstitions for everything. According to the people of Braga, Portugal, there is a statue that can ensure marriage. Legend has it that if a woman walks around this statue three times, she will hear wedding bells in the near future. If you are eager for marriage, it might be worth doing. Of course, if you really want to get married, you'd better work hard to accomplish it rather than leaving it up to superstition. After all, while you can't rely on luck, you can always rely on your own actions!

22. Which of the following is an example of a superstition?
 (A) Telling your classmates that you don't believe in luck. (B) Wearing your lucky socks when going on a big date.
 (C) Eating fish and pasta for dinner every Wednesday. (D) Getting up at 6:30 every morning, even on the weekends.
 23. What word or phrase does not mean the same as "now and then"?
 (A) Sometimes. (B) Once in a while. (C) Over and over. (D) From time to time.
 24. What does the passage imply about superstition?
 (A) There is a lot of superstition surrounding marriage. (B) People are superstitious when they have good luck.
 (C) People might be superstitious without realizing it. (D) Superstition can be relied on in many cases.
 25. According to the author, what will ensure a wedding?
 (A) Finding out more about wedding superstitions. (B) Doing everything one can to get married.
 (C) Asking the people of Portugal for help. (D) Walking around the statue in Braga.
